Wedding Ceremony Application

This form must be completed and returned to the Clerk's Officer prior to scheduling confirmation with the Mayor. Please provide accurate and specific information on your wedding plans. Weddings will be scheduled on a first come, first service basis.

A valid Michigan Marriage License is required before the Mayor can perform the service. You must apply for the license in the County where you live. Out of State residents can only apply for a license in Iron County. Contact the appropriate County Clerk for license requirements and fees. The marriage license must be delivered to the City Clerk's Office and the service confirmed at least three (3) days prior to the wedding date.

A Processing Fee of $25 for City residents and $50 for non-City residents is charged by the City of Iron River payable upon delivery of the completed Wedding Ceremony Application to the Clerk's Office. This fee is non-refundable.

Traditional Vows are used, the wording can be changed if you wish to personalize the ceremony. If you wish to change the vows, please furnish a copy at least one week prior to the ceremony.

The Mayor will meet the wedding party at the designated location to perform the ceremony. The civil ceremony lasts approximately ten to fifteen minutes. No rehearsal will be held.
